Welcome to the AAA Carolinas Driver Education Catalog!

As educators and leaders in traffic safety, the AAA Carolinas Driver Education Department strives to provide products that reduce motorists' risks on the road.

Founded on a commitment to motorists' safety, AAA continuously promotes traffic safety and driver education through our products, classes, seminars and information. From a school safety patrol program for elementary school kids to materials and programs for teen, adult and mature drivers, we offer quality products with the backing of our nationally recognized organization.

Whatever your traffic safety or driver education need, the AAA Driver Education Department is here to help with products and classes that span a lifetime. If you have any questions regarding the products in this catalog, please feel free to contact us toll-free at 888-274-4459.

AAA Carolinas Driver Education Programs

School Safety Patrol

Since 1920, the AAA School Safety Patrol Program has helped equip patrollers with the skills and resources needed to ensure that their classmates remain safe in and around school. As school leaders, they teach other students about traffic safety on a peer-to-peer basis and represent school safety. Visit AAA.com/schoolsafetypatrol for more information on how you can start a school safety patrol program in your school.

Pre-Teen/Teen Driving

AAA is here to help teens prepare for the road ahead. By providing products and information, including free Dare to Prepare seminars for parents and teens, we help young drivers get a safe start on driving.

Driver Improvement

One of the nation's leading defensive driving programs, the AAA Driver Improvement Program is designed for experienced drivers who have received a traffic ticket, require fleet training, want a reduction in insurance rates, or simply have the desire to become better drivers. Visit AAA.com/DriverEducation for a class near you.

Mature Motorists

AAA is dedicated to keeping mature motorist driving safely as long as possible. Resources such as free Keeping the Keys seminars, computer programs that offer self-evaluations, and mature driver classes help make this possible.

Fleet Training

AAA Driver Education offers fleet managers online driver safety training courses for their fleet drivers. The AAA Approved courses are designed to help reduce insurance rates, claims, and litigation by preventing crashes and lowering the number of traffic violations service providers receive.

Driver Improvement Program Instructor Certification

A 40-hour certification class will certify you to teach the AAA Driver Improvement Program, one of the nation's leading defensive driving courses. Increase your driving school's business by offering this valuable service.

Continuing Education

Driver's education instructors in North Carolina can attend one of our continuing education classes to fulfill their required continuing education credits. Classes are 8 hours long and are offered on a quarterly basis.

AAA Approved Driving Schools

AAA Approved Driving Schools offer a variety of AAA Approved services including behind-the-wheel training, classes for insurance discounts, teen driver classes and mature driver classes. Contact the AAA Driver Education Department for more information on becoming an Approved Driving School.

There are 8.9 million drivers in North and South Carolina. Most of these drivers learned to drive as teenagers with some basic driver education curriculum provided by a school or parent. However, as technology advances and we get older it is important to continue our driver education.

If your driving skills are not as sharp as you thought, contact AAA Driver Education and sign up for the Driver Improvement Program today. Any motorist who would like to refresh their driving skills or who has received a citation and obtained permission from a District Attorney or lawyer may take the online or in-class Traffic Safety Class. For more information on registering for this course, please call 866-741-6668 or visit AAA.com/DriverEducation.
